SPIRITUAL TRAINING...

All of us recognize the beautiful altar in Concordia Lutheran Church.

Mr. H. Birkman assists R. Fahlsing as he delivers the morning devotions to the student body.

Together for the last time-we worshiped our Lord.

Miss D. Mertz provides musical accompaniment as we sing God's praises.

Students search the Scriptures to grow in spiritual knowledge.

Bi-weekly devotions at Concordia Lutheran Church served to bring us nearer to our God. These services were conducted by the co-operation of the Lutheran High School Association pastors.

The joy of Christmas was shared by all.

Mr. Herbert F. Birkman, Principal,
M.A., M.S.

Dear Students:

During the school year 1960-1961 you have been permitted to live and learn together with fellow Christians. Under the blessings of God you have grown toward maturity in thinking and doing, always striving toward improving yourself.

From the learning experiences in and out of classrooms you have gained understandings and developed wholesome Christian attitudes.

By deepening your insights in Christ's principles you have learned to love your Savior more devoutly and this love should now motivate you toward greater and bigger undertakings in the future.

As Christian young people you have also learned to assume more responsibility in serving your church, your school, and your community.

As your principal, I shall continue to include all of you in my daily prayers also in years to come.

Your friend,

Herbert F. Birkman

director of religious education director of public relations

In this department lies the purpose for our enrollment in Concordia. Students striving for eternal goals are strengthened in their faith and given inspiration. The courses help to further their aims and bring to reality their ideals. Freshmen study the New Testament; sophomores the Old Testament. Juniors study the history and founding of the Christian Church, while seniors concentrate on Christian living. The knowledge gained will provide a guide and goal for life as children of God.

Through the science department, the students at Concordia become acquainted with God's creation. In these science courses, the students gain an interest in the world around them and achieve the ability to think more clearly and live more wisely as a result of what they have learned. They acquire a better understanding of what is being achieved in the field of science and a basic foundation for further study.

This department is trying to develop in students the ability to think logically and to use reason in making decisions. The courses being offered in the college prep. line are Algebra I & II, plane geometry, solid geometry, and trigonometry. These subjects are the foundations for those people who are looking forward to careers in the fields of science and engineering. The two courses offered for those students on the general or business course of study are general math and one semester of business math. These courses review many of the basic concepts of mathematics which are applied not only in business, but also in daily life.

Mr. A. Daniel notes carefully the students' procedure on their assignment.

The foreign language department of Concordia includes the study of Latin and German. Both are two-year elective courses and present facts and figures of interest and importance about the Latin and German speaking peoples of the world. These courses not only bring about a better understanding of the foreign languages but also our own language. The study of these languages is relevant in building a firm foundation for future development in this field.

The Business Department

The purpose of business training is to ready students for vocational work in typing, bookkeeping, and shorthand. Courses offered in the business department are very thorough in the sense that a student having graduated with a major in this department needs very little further training to hold a responsible office position. Or a student wishing to continue his education will find his training invaluable in college work and part-time employment.

The home economics department is a basic course for the future homemaker of tomorrow. This department offers the students the fundamentals of home management, food preparation, sewing skills, and home nursing. Through this course the students are prepared for a future in homemaking and given a substantial background to help the students meet successfully the problems of everyday living. Another phase of the department is the training in good grooming and aids in building a better personality. The home economics student is inspired with a determination to obtain a rich and rewarding goal--a Christian home.

ORGANIZATIONS

The Student Council

The Student Council is the student governing body of Concordia. This organization is active in maintaining high standards for the students of Concordia. It helps to promote harmonious relations between teachers and students, and between the city of Fort Wayne and Concordia Lutheran High School. Through the Student Council home room representatives are able to develop leadership. Also, the student body's ideas can be readily considered and acted upon. The Student Council is an example of leaders in action.

The Junior Red Cross, one of the largest organizations at Concordia, is dedicated to helping the less fortunate. During the past year members have visited many of the sick and aged in the area, volunteered their services to the American Red Cross, made favors and treats for worthy causes, and carried on the annual can drive. The only requirement necessary is a willingness to serve others by spreading charity and good-will. Sponsored this year by Mrs. Knoblauch and Mrs. Roop the club truly gave examples of active Christianity.

This club helps stimulate interest in the science of living things. This is done through laboratory experiments and discussions beyond class study. The participants acquired further understanding through field trips and tours to various places of scientific interest. The group is sponsored by Mr. E. Meyer.

The Science Club

The purpose of the Science Club of Concordia is to create interest in and an understanding of science through education on an extracurricular basis. This is achieved through touring scientific places of interest and through participation in discussions of laboratory experiments. The sponsor is Mr. J. Weinhold.

The Librarians Club

The chief purpose of the Librarians Club is to improve the efficiency and supervision of the library by assisting Mrs. B. Meyer in her many duties. Related purposes are to arouse further enthusiasm in literature and encourage interests in the library profession. Shelving, mending, processing and checking out the books are but a few of the numerous responsibilities of the club members.

Above are shown the Librarians Club members. The officers are F. Hall, President, E. Manley, Secretary, C. VerBryck, Treasurer, M. Bowers, Vice-President.

Below are society members in the top 15% of the senior class who were "tagged" at the close of the first semester.

Membership in the National Honor Society is the ultimate goal of all students. Selections from the top 15% of the senior class are accepted into membership on "Tag Day." The requirements are scholastic ability, leadership qualities, and intellectual interests. On "Tag Day," the members receive recognition for their efforts. The purpose of the society is to promote interest and enthusiasm in the scholastic field.

Besides gaining health and enjoyment benefits, the girls receive points toward one of the coveted letter sweaters given.

Get one step closer, and I'll let you have it.

The Rifle Team

Concordia's Rifle Team consists of eight "sharpshooters" from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. The boys competed against teams of other schools and were considered better than average. Each year, the five members who end the season with the highest match average are awarded a letter. The team is coached by Lt. Diemer. This year's captain was L. Clark; the sergeant, B. Feldes.

Below are Mr. J. Diemer and members of the Rifle Team.

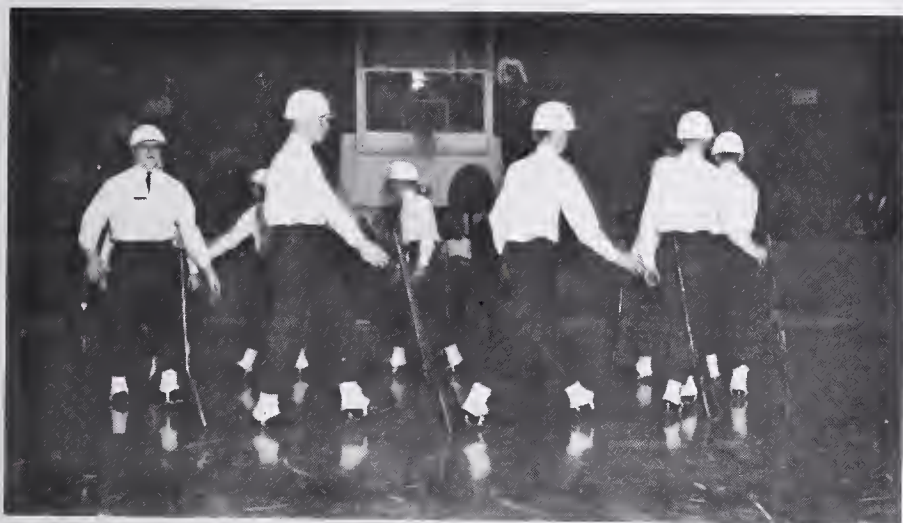

The Snap Squad

This year the Snap Squad provided exciting entertainment with their timed techniques and precision drills at many basketball games. They performed for many other organizations and participated in parades. The boys are selected by demonstrating their skills before the senior military officers. The squad consists of five juniors and five sophomores. Cadet Captain James Reinking is the commander.

Dramatic Productions

The cast of the "Five Dollar Bill" takes a well deserved bow.

Mrs. Moore (C. Burhop), questions her son Ralph (J. Dolan), as to the whereabouts of a "Five-Dollar Bill."

Below are scenes from the "Five Dollar Bill."

Pupil Views Performance Of "Five Dollar Bill"

By Janice Stauffer

The two performances of "The Five Dollar Bill" under the direction of Mr. John Sturmfels, were held Nov. 11th and 12th. This year marked the first production of a play with a serious nature. The success of audience reception depended almost entirely on the acting of the cast. The actors in this drama were outstanding in their portrayal of their own particular characters, and, consequently, held the attention of the audience.

Wayne Shrubbsall played the role of the Major. His genuine portrayal as the model father typified his usual naturalness when playing the part of an elderly person.

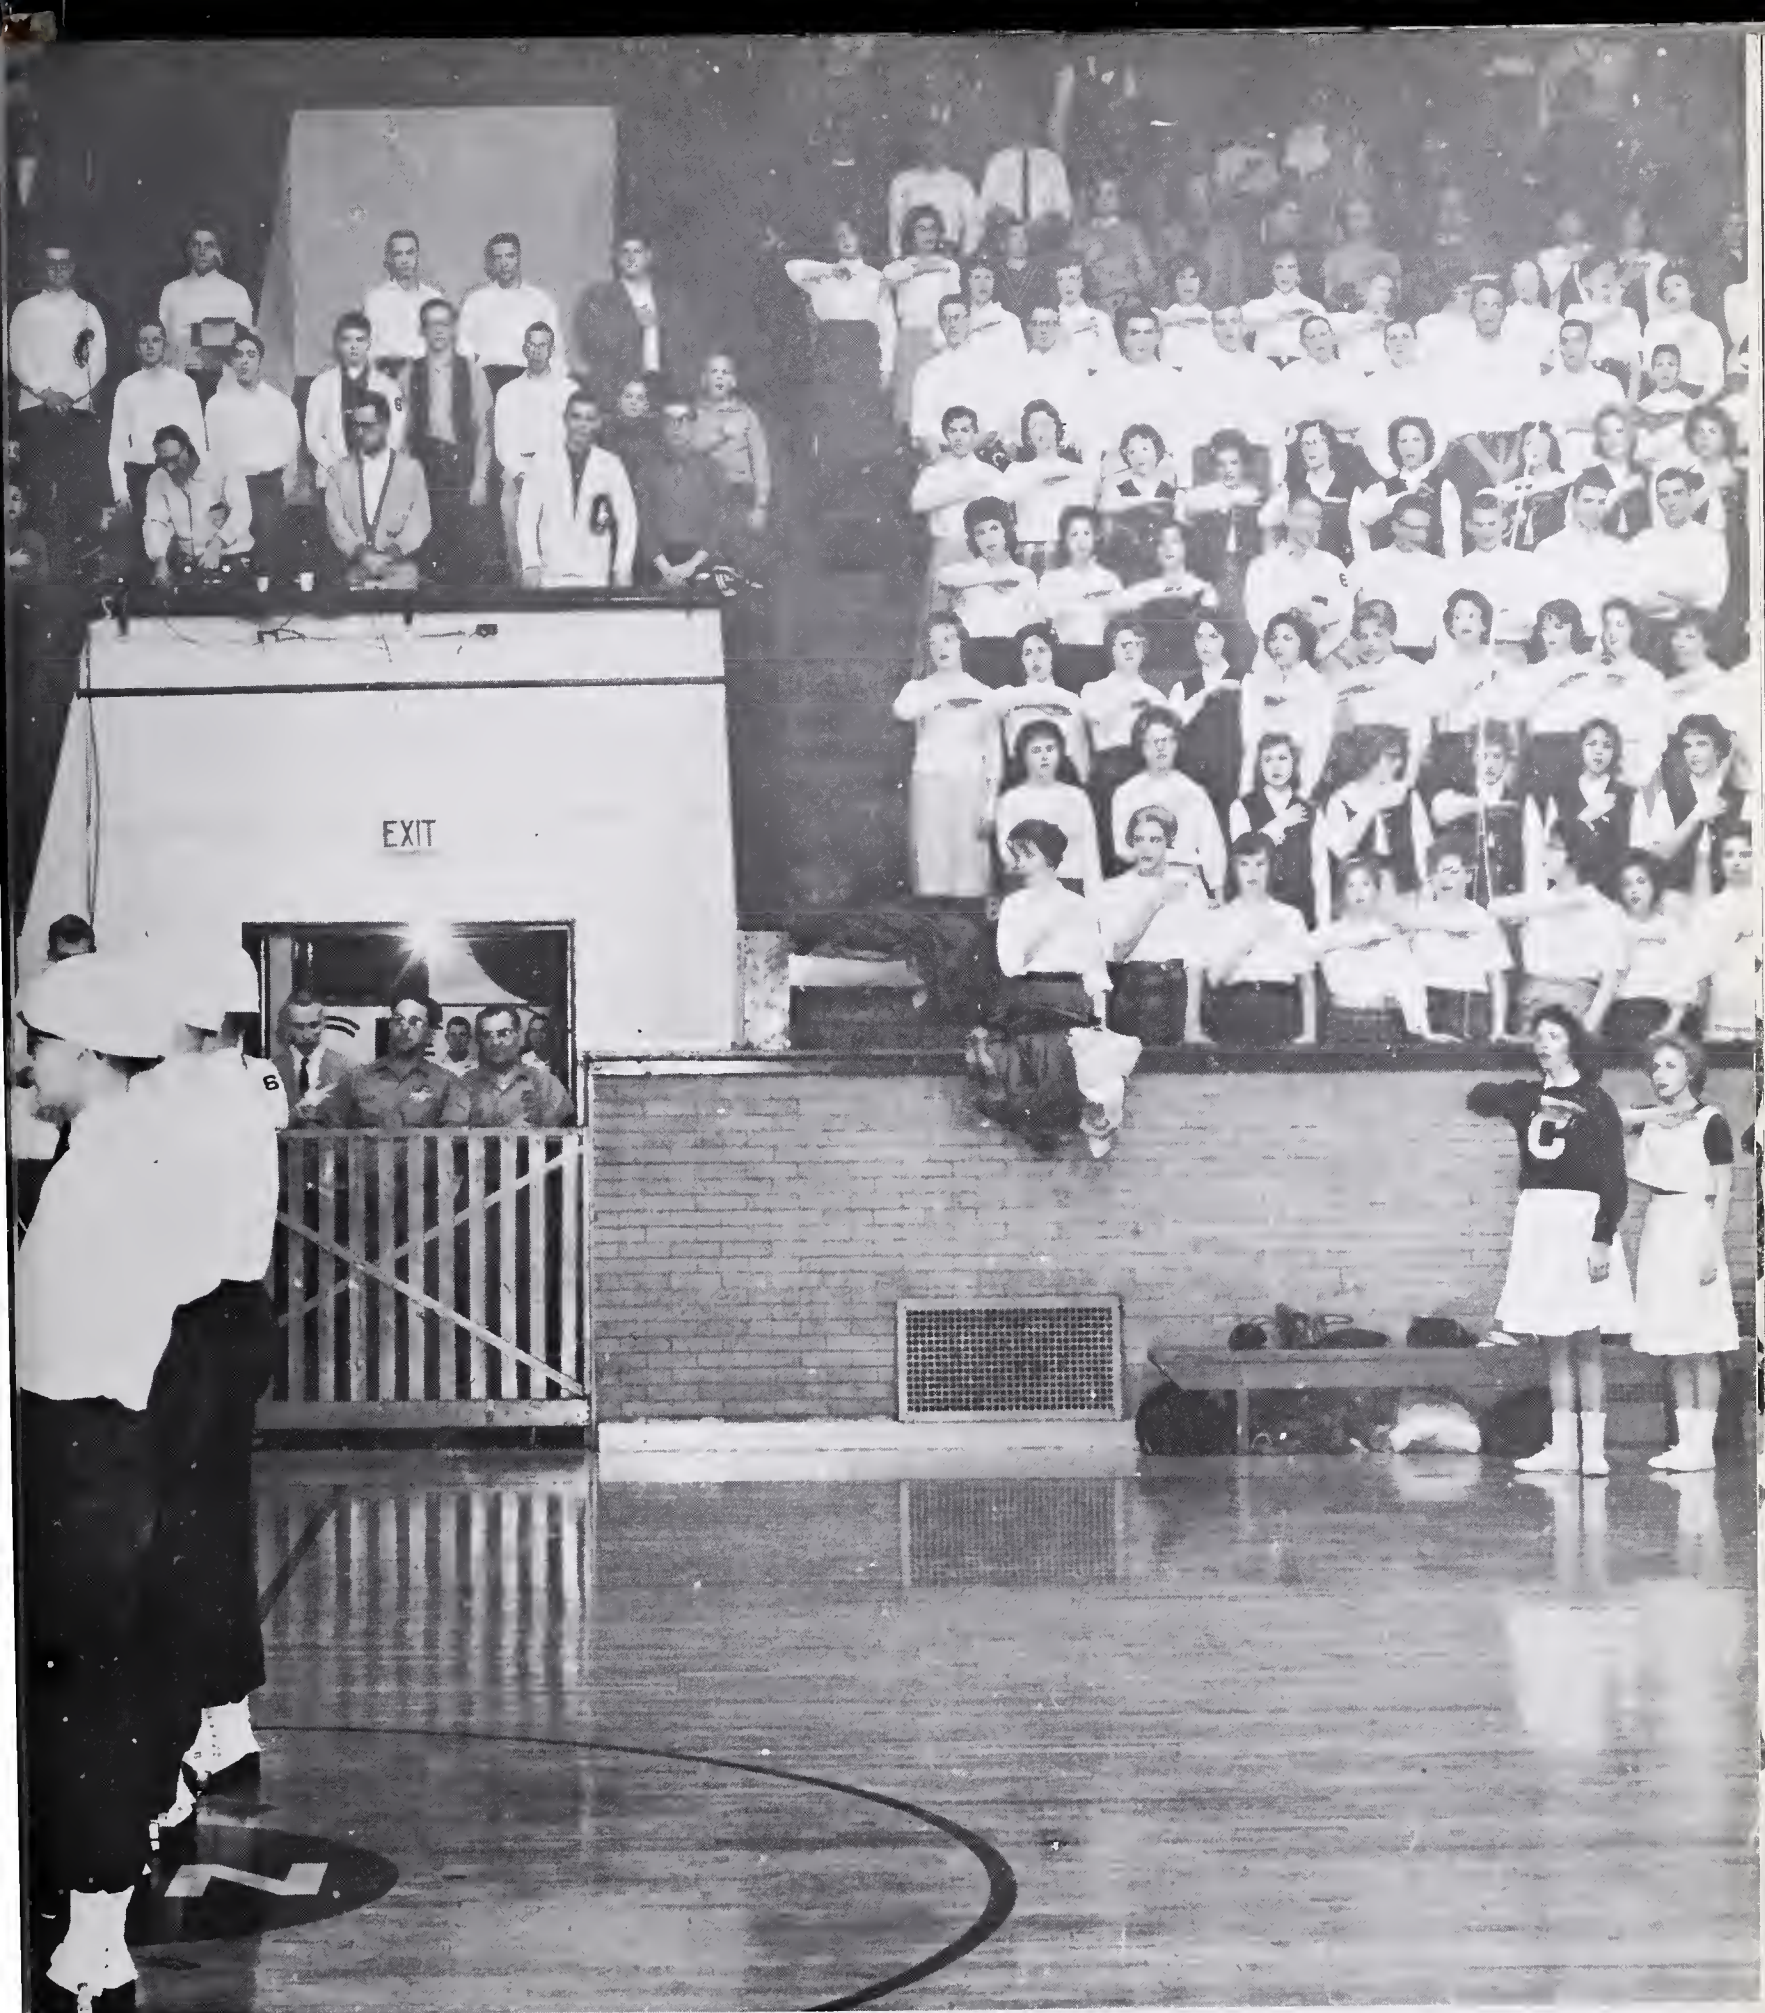

Mrs. Moore, the Major's wife, played by Cindy Burhop, was the young attractive mother of Ralph and Don. Cindy's performance, especially in the scene of the play, was a sample of the fine liked. His girl friend, Virginia, was played by Susie Niemeyer. Although Virginia was very pretty, she felt only secure with Don. Others seen by students possess.

Also deserving recognition for a stirring performance was Jim Dolan, as Ralph, the individual-entangled in his emotions that he could hardly express his feelings. Don, the older brother, was depicted by Keith Markey. Don as the more rounded-out type of guy.

The Reserve Team

The reserve football team, under the direction of Mr. J. Mader, is a team of preparation. The training received will prove valuable to them when they join the varsity squad. Although the record of triumphs and defeats--one win, one tie, and three losses--does not appear ostentatious, the boys fought hard, gaining much experience to help them in their football futures.

The Freshmen Team

This year the Freshmen had a very promising season. The size and speed of the boys showed great prospects for the future. With the return of Mr. J. Massucii, the boys showed fine teamwork backed by fight and spirit.

Coach Koch's reserve team fell from the ranks of the unbeaten--the first game. Since that time the reserve team improved tremendously, but managed only a few victories. The games were largely very close and were decided in the last minutes of play.

The Freshmen Team

The Freshmen Basketball Team coached by Mr. J. Masucci, concluded its season with a winning record. Their exhibition of a working knowledge of the basic skills and techniques of the game can assure Concordia of continued winning seasons in the future. The freshmen's home games could be seen at the Tokheim gymnasium.

Varsity Football

Sporting a record of eight wins and two losses, the Concordia Cadets concluded a successful season. This can be attributed to the spirit, fight, and teamwork displayed by the boys. Coach Bill Koch did a fine job with the boys, and everyone was very proud of their showing. The cheerleaders worked zealously and the worth of their labors was evidence when as many as four commercial busses were needed to transport Cadet fans to games. Such turn-outs indicate that football is becoming a more popular sport with the students, as well as with the adults. We feel that this season will be remembered in future years as one of Concordia's greatest.

The Cheerleaders

L-R--Varsity--S. Baals, J. Ramming, J. Stauffer, J. Armstrong, Reserve--C. Lehman, A. Franz, B. Koester

Seldom so settled

"Wow, what a thriller!!!"

Novel pep sessions backed with enthusiasm for victory; p.a. pep talks introducing the players to you; the entire student body which whole-heartedly backed the team and gave unity to cheering are the innovations which this year's cheerleaders contributed to the football and basketball games. We wish successful seasons to next year's Cadet teams.

Reserves reach for high things--Varsity perhaps?

The Booster Club

The purpose of the Booster Club is to exercise its name--to back the team with high spirit and boost sportsmanship. This is done through the efforts of the entire student body. Working as a unit the Cadet fans conveyed enthusiasm, zeal, and eager interest to sportsmen and spectators alike.

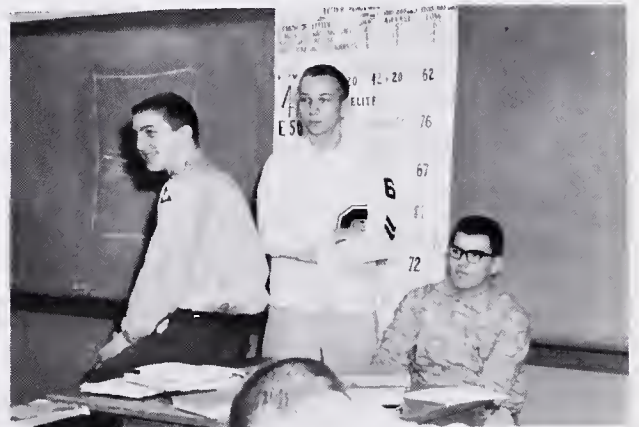

United we stand, divided we fall.

lering, Treasurer.

The Lettermen's Club

The Lettermen's Club is composed of a group of boys who participated in the athletic program at Concordia thereby receiving a letter and membership in the club. The lettermen sponsor various socials, parties, and the annual selling of sweat shirts bearing the name and emblem of Concordia in order to defray costs of their letter jackets. The club is sponsored by Mr. W. Koch.

The Spring Sports

Above is pictured members of the Cross Country team.

Cross Country Team

This branch of track is a prolonged run of two miles over a prescribed and ungraded trail. Preparation for the sport is an all-year-round prerequisite. The Cross Country coach is Mr. J. Diemer.

Golf Team

Striving for "par", "holes-in-one", and winning scores is the goal of the golf team, another active spring sport. The year is ended with a golf tournament. The team is coached by Mr. J. Daniels.

Baseball Team

The batter scored, the spectators cheered, and the short but busy baseball season was again underway at Concordia. This year the team was coached by Mr. J. Mader.

Due to the fact that the yearbook must be completed before the spring sports are fully underway, the spring activities will be forecast rather than reviewed, and the information included is that which could be gathered before the last deadline.

Track Team

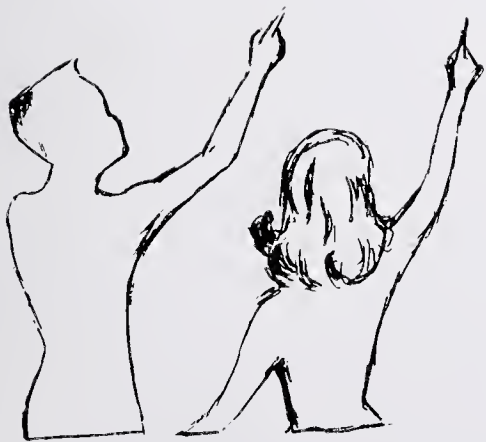

The track team, in a consistent effort to set new records and achieve new heights, provides the climaxing athletic events of the school year. The events--running, hurdling, vaulting, jumping and shot-putting involve much time and practice. The team is coached by Mr. W. Koch.

Tennis Team

Under the direction of Mr. D. Reinking, the boys hope to have another successful season. The boys compete with other city and area schools and attempt to bring additional honors to Concordia.

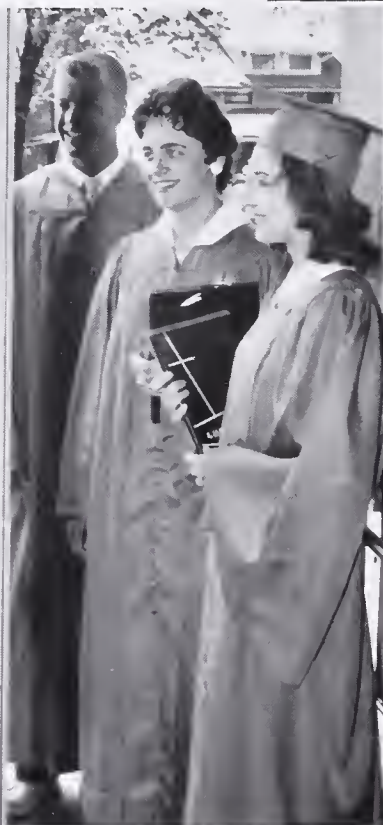

Carol . To a girl in our Health &

Last year, for the third time, Concordia won the second Sportsmanship Trophy ever to be offered by the Fort Wayne Police Department. This entitled us to keep the coveted prize. The fine showing of the Concordia student body has acquired high esteem with Fort Wayne citizens and the surrounding community.

Safety moon. Hope you succeed in school

UNDERGRADUATES

Juniors

This year has been packed full of new and exciting adventures . . . the planning and anticipation of your class rings . . . two members chosen to the queen's court . . . Christmas decorations on second floor . . . your class party . . . and the excitement of planning the Senior Banquet. Yes, with one more year here at Concordia, leaving behind many wonderful memories, you will soon enter your final and most memorable year.

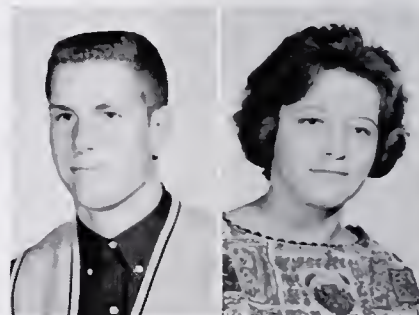

Is it getting heavy, Ken?

PLOT PLAN... CONCORDIA LUTHERAN HIGH SCHOOL

Spacious 23.17 Acre Site Provides Campus Setting

The generous acreage of the Zollner land site places the new school in a most attractive setting and affords unexcelled facilities for recreational, sports and cultural as well as educational outdoor activities.

- A. PRESENT GRANDSTAND BUILDING
- B. CAFETERIA-KITCHEN FACILITIES
- C. GYM-AUDITORIUM AND CLASSROOMS
- D. INDUSTRIAL ARTS AND MILITARY
- E. EDUCATION WING
- F. ENTRANCE DRIVE
- G. PARKING AREAS
- H. PROPOSED TRACK
- I. FOOTBALL PRACTICE AND SPORTS FIELD
- X. ANTHONY BOULEVARD
- Y. SPRINGFIELD STREET
- Z. CRESCENT AVENUE

Recent merger of Lutheran Educational Properties, Inc. into The Lutheran Association for Secondary Education has now resulted in clear title ownership of the Stadium and land in the name of the Association.

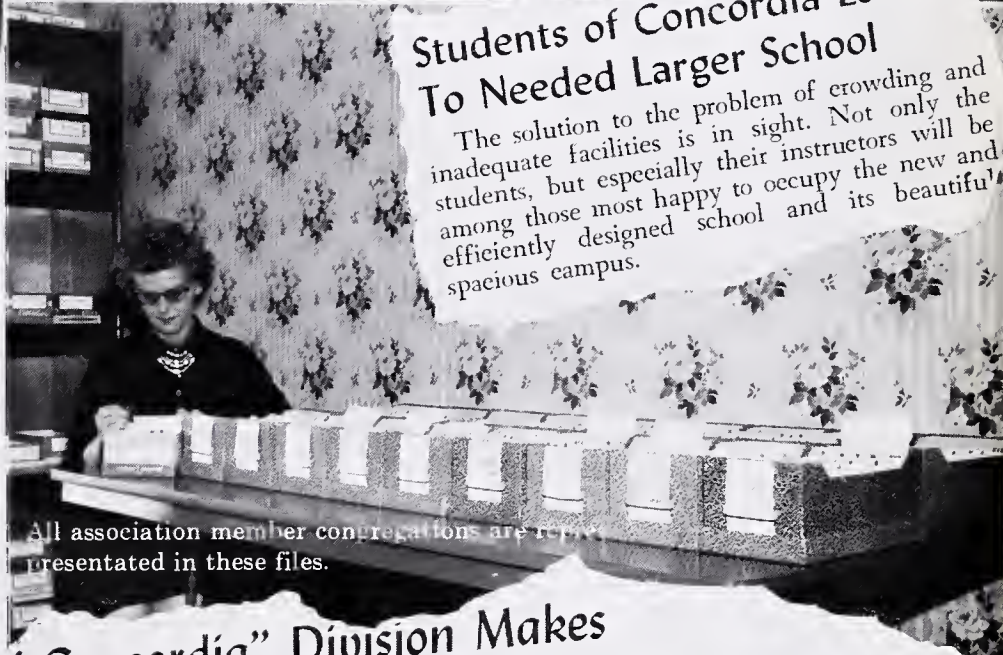

Mrs. McLaughlin records all payments on pledges for our new high school.

Students of Concordia Look To Needed Larger School

The solution to the problem of crowding and inadequate facilities is in sight. Not only the students, but especially their instructors will be among those most happy to occupy the new and efficiently designed school and its beautiful spacious campus.

All association member congregations are represented in these files.

Above to the right is the architects' first rendition of the proposed new Concordia Lutheran High School (shown in color on the inside covers). It helped to inspire more than 2,000 workers to solicit pledges for this new CONCORDIA. The goal was set at $750,000.00, (an impossible amount, many believed) but the minimum needed to build about one-third of this school. Final tabulations revealed that pledges of nearly a million dollars had been recorded. The final plans which were approved by the building committee do not quite agree with the rendition shown here.

When our present school was dedicated less than ten years ago, no one could possibly have imagined that bona fide FOR SALE signs would be standing on the lawn today; but that's PROGRESS--and we all like it.

"Friends of Concordia" Division Makes Sizable Contribution to New Building Program

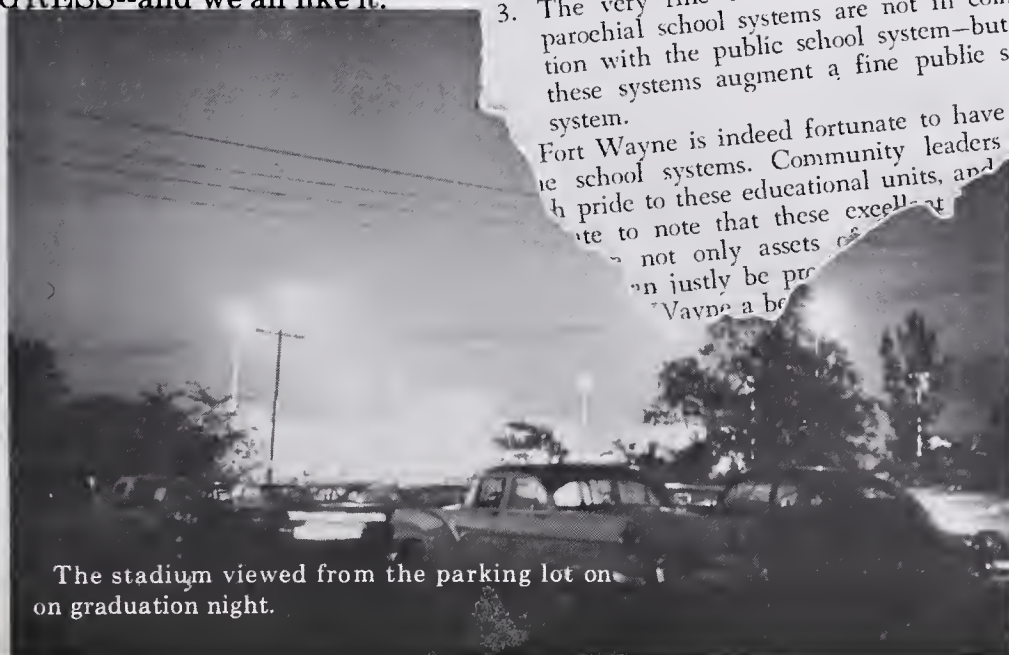

Contributions from this division are nearing $150,000 with some additional pledges still to be received from certain industrial and commercial enterprises. Community interest and participation in this program is indicative of three very pertinent facts:

1. The high regard which the entire community has for Concordia High School and its fine student body.
2. The knowledge that industrial and commercial leaders are aware that school taxes could be almost 50% higher if it were not for the many parochial schools in this area.
3. The very fine understanding that the two parochial school systems are not in competition with the public school system—but that these systems augment a fine public school system.

Fort Wayne is indeed fortunate to have three fine school systems. Community leaders point with pride to these educational units, and note that these excellent schools are not only assets of the city but also a source of pride for Fort Wayne.

Later totals nearly reached the million dollar mark.

The Library

Mrs. B. Meyer, M.S.
Librarian
Sponsor of the Library Club

R. Dunn is going to read a book?

Concordia's library has an important function in our school life: it provides students with material for research, enlightenment, and enjoyment. Mrs. B. Meyer, the librarian is aided by members of the Library Club, which she sponsors.

Mrs. Meyer aids D. Young in using the card catalog.

There will be no talking out in the library.

Indispensible Aids

Alice S. Masenthin

Always at your service

The office ladies (L-R) Mrs. L. Roemke, and Mrs. A. Masenthin, are ready and willing to serve you. Mrs. Roemke is Mr. Birkman's secretary and bookkeeper of activities accounts. Mrs. Masenthin is the school bookkeeper.

Mr. R. Merris, the night-time custodian, assists in keeping Concordia clean.

Mr. D. Stein, the day-time custodian, busies himself fixing "odds and ends."
